Gastrointestinal & Hepatobiliary Nursing and AHP Research Seminar

09:15  Andrew Dainty & Dr Jo Cooper
Welcome and introductions

09:30  Helena Edis (ERAS Nurse Practitioner DDT)
A feasibility study investigating the association between self-efficacy and the success of patients on the ERAS programme

10:00  Antonella Ghezzi (Nurse Manager BRU)
Assessing nutrition through observation in liver cirrhosis

10:30  Andrew Dainty (PhD Student/ RN Gastroenterology)
The cognitive behavioural aspects and treatment of Irritable Bowel Syndrome

11:00  Andy Wragg (Patient and Public Involvement Manager BRU)
Involving patients and public as partners in research

11:30  Coffee and networking

12:00  Kate Jack (Advanced Virology Specialist Nurse HPB)
A qualitative enquiry into prison custody officers' views about hepatitis C testing and treatment

12:30  Andrea Bennett (Research Nurse BRU / NIHR funded MA Res Methods graduate)
A Pilot Study to Evaluate the Effectiveness of a Self-Management Education Program for Patients with Stable Compensated Cirrhosis

13:00  Maria Matthews (Trainee Health Psychologist Digestive Diseases)
Behaviour change theory and practise

13:30  Dr Jo Cooper (Head of Nursing and Midwifery Research)
Getting your work published

Please drop in for any of these presentations
NDDC seminar room, D-Floor
(around the corner from the D-Floor canteen)
Monday 10th November 2014

Please contact Andrew Dainty for more information
Email: ntxad9@nottingham.ac.uk